- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record, personal history, or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: MARC M. HARRIS
CASE NUMBER: 0:03CR20347-COHN

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall also comply with the following additional conditions of supervised release:

The defendant shall reside in the District of Connecticut and shall not change his address unless he has permission from the Court or U.S. Probation Officer to move. The defendant may travel within the following judicial districts without requiring permission of the Court or the U.S. Probation Officer, Southern District of Florida, District of Connecticut, Southern District of New York, Eastern District of New York, District of Rhode Island, and District of Massachusetts.

The defendant shall not leave the confine of these districts without the permission of the Court or U.S. Probation Officer.

Employment Requirement - After the first six months of supervision, the defendant shall maintain full-time, legitimate employment and not be unemployed for a term of more than 30 days unless excused by the Court or the U.S. Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall provide documentation including, but not limited to pay stubs, contractual agreements, W-2 Wage and Earnings Statements, and other documentation requested by the U.S. Probation Officer.

Employment Solicitation Restriction - The defendant shall not be engaged in any business that offers securities, or investments, to the public without the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer or the Court. The defendant is further prohibited from engaging in telemarketing, direct mail, or national advertising campaigns for business purposes without the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer or the Court.

Financial Disclosure Requirement - The defendant shall provide complete access to financial information, including disclosure of all business and personal finances, to the U.S. Probation Officer.

Business Restriction - The defendant shall not own, operate, act as a consultant, be employed in, or participate in any manner, in any related concern during the period of supervision without the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer or the Court.

Permissible Search - The defendant shall submit to a search of his person or property conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time by the U.S. Probation Officer.

Self-Employment Restriction - The defendant shall obtain prior approval from the U.S. Probation Officer or the Court before entering into any self-employment.

Restitution with Imprisonment -

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $ 6,588,949.50. A portion of this restitution amount is owed joint and several restitution with the Aurelio and Joseph Vigna and V & V Medley (Docket number 98-956-CR-HURLEY SD/FL) in the amount of $5,929,082.50. During the period of incarceration, payment shall be made as follows: (1) if the defendant earns wages in a Federal Prison Industries (UNICOR) job, then the defendant must pay 50% of wages earned toward the financial obligations imposed by this Judgment in a Criminal Case; (2) if the defendant does not work in a UNICOR job, then the defendant must pay a minimum of $25.00 per quarter toward the financial obligations imposed in this order. Upon release of incarceration, the defendant shall pay restitution at the rate of 10% of monthly gross earnings, until such time as the court may alter that payment schedule in the interests of justice. The U.S. Bureau of Prisons, U.S. Probation Office and U.S. Attorney's Office shall monitor the payment of restitution and report to the court any material change in the defendant's ability to pay. These payments do not preclude the government from using any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains, assets or income of the defendant to satisfy the restitution obligations. The restitution shall be made payable to Clerk, United States Courts, and forwarded to:
